

This book provides an original account of Emersons creative debts to the British and European Romantics, including Coleridge and Carlyle, firmly locating them in his New England context. Moreover this book analyses and explains the way that his thought shapes his unique prose style in which idea and word become united in an epistemology of form.

The Child Remover, Recreations of an Anthologist, Symbolism: The Manichean Vision: A Study in the Art of James, Conrad, Woolf, and Stevens, An essay on John Milton, (Eclectic English classics), Masquerade: House of Souls, Sartoris, Wolframs Titirel als kritik am hofischen Minnebild (German Edition),
