

A prosperous Japanese family is banished from their home by the politics of war—Forced to endure three bitter years of internment in the California desert. When they return home, everything is gone. The devastation, dishonor, and shame that destroyed his family festers in the heart of one who is on a journey to return honor to his family's name...honor that can only be achieved through giri and retribution. Private investigator quiet seaside home in Dungeness Bay, Oregon is rocked by a series of murders. The only clue is written on a wall in Japanese, traced in blood—Ms blood. She doesn't have to go far to find the killer...because He is coming after her.
